CHAUTAUQUA IS CLOSING TODAY

Second Year's Session is a Success Despite Stormy Weather.

The second year's session of the Lincoln Chautauqua will close with the concert and lecture tonight. The attendance has been very good despite the stormy weather. The first day's program was greatly interfered with by a storm and the entertainment last night was largely prevented by the great rain and electric storm of yesterday.

The skies are clear and the tent is in good shape for the closing program today, which will be one of the big days of the assembly. The original Imperial Hand Band of Yorkshire, England, will give a unique and delightful concert at 2:30 and 8 p. m. today. This famous band plays 130 bells and their repertoire ranges from ragtime to classical music.

The Hon. Charles H. Poole, for six years a leader in the New Zealand parliament, will speak at both the afternoon and evening sessions. Mr. Poole is a statesman and orator of great ability.

The largest attendance yet will doubtless be on hand tonight.

The chautauqua for 1914 seems almost assured, and the committee is busy today pledging the tickets for next year, when an entirely new program will be provided. Clarksburg should not fail to attend the closing entertainment tonight at 8 o'clock.

SOCIAL

Friends Entertained.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Tichenal entertained from 2 until 5 o'clock Wednesday afternoon in honor of their son, Raymond Earl's thirteenth birthday. A very enjoyable time was had by all and at a reasonable hour dainty refreshments were served. Many beautiful presents were received.

Those present were Mart Thompson, Chester Cottrell, Dale Gould, John Swager, Russell Rymer, Albert Powell, Raymond Schon, Clarence Wickenhaver, John Moulder, Willie Arnett, Gladys Courtney, Ruth Souders, Lena Keaster, John Asburn, Jimmie Cottrell, John Swindler, Malcolm Tighe, Kenneth Boyles, John Mays, Harry Skinner, Eli Leeson, Cecil Junkins, Harold Crim, Charlie Tate, Clifford Wolford, Clyde Nail, Bert Keaster, Vanne Keaster, Paul Stout, John Orr, Delbert Merriman, James Zanfuss, Garland Leeson, John Skinner, Garland Woodworth, Edward Smith, James Wolford, Juna White, Roy Wolford, Robert Tichenal, Harry Crummitt, Jr., Harry Tichenal, David Nail, Frank Tate, Clifton Cottrell, Teddy Bolander, Curnell McWilliam, Teddy Kerns, Lewis Coughill, Charlie Barth, Harriet Smyth, Aida Wolford, Edith Jenkins, Jean Crummitt, Lura Kerns, Icie Junkins, Mildred Rimer, Cintha Raldrind, Lyle White, Annette McFarlin, Janice Boulanger, Daisy Curney, Doris Kidd, Lucille White, Martha Wolford, Ruth Skinner, Georgia Huff, Mamie Coughill, Mabel Tighe, Gladys Price, Ethel Minter, Olive Pool, Lillian Poll, Aida George, Blanche Price, Beulah Bumgardner, Bernice Nyters, Katherine Barth, Zella Aschcraft, Bonnie Curr.

CUBS' FOOD They Thrive on Grape-Nuts.

Healthy babies don't cry and the well-nourished baby that is fed on Grape-Nuts is never a crying baby. Many babies who cannot take any other food relish the perfect food, Grape-Nuts, and get well.

"My baby was given up by three doctors who said that the condensed milk on which I had fed her had ruined the child's stomach. One of the doctors told me that the only thing to do would be to try Grape-Nuts, so I got some and prepared it as follows: I soaked 1½ tablespoonsful in one pint of cold water for half an hour, then I strained off the liquid and mixed 12 teaspoonfuls of this strained Grape-Nuts juice with six teaspoonfuls of rich milk, put in a pinch of salt and a little sugar, warmed it and gave it to baby every two hours.

"In this simple, easy way I saved baby's life and have built her up to a strong, healthy child, rosy and laughing. The food must certainly be perfect to have such a wonderful effect as this. I can truthfully say I think it is the best food in the world to raise delicate babies on and is also a delicious healthy food for grown-ups as we have discovered in our family."

Grape-Nuts is equally valuable to the strong, healthy man or woman. It stands for the true theory of health. "There's a reason," and it is explained in the little book, "The Road to Wellville," in pink.

Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are gentle, true and full of human interest.

Mrs. Haymaker Entertains.

From 7 to 9 o'clock last evening Mrs. Frank B. Haymaker entertained a number of her friends at a large reception which she gave in honor of her daughter, a recent bride, Mrs. George Gordon Lynch, and also complimenting her niece, the Misses Dearth, of Uniontown, Pa. The floral decorations of the rooms were most elaborate and the lands of smilax and laurel adorned the back ground of cybodium ferns. Garlands of smilax formed a pleasing effect with the brilliant costumes worn by the many guests who were received by the hostess, the bride and her bridesmaids.

Mrs. Haymaker wore a beautiful gown of turquoise blue messaline trimmed in pessementine. Mrs. Lynch looked very handsome in her wedding gown of bridal satin. Mrs. Coffman, the matron of honor, the Misses Haymaker and Miss Dearth, the bridesmaids, were attired in Killarney pink meteor gowns forming a brilliant group.

The decorations in the dining room where ices were served, were La France roses and carnations. A mound of Killarney roses formed the center piece of the table augmented by garlands of smilax and broad pink satin ribbon arranged most artistically on the dome with huge bows of bridal tulle. Mrs. Charles Smiley presided and was assisted by Miss Genevieve Harrison, Miss Rines Hood, Miss Margaret Robinson, Miss Virginia Snyder, Miss Bertha Bland and Miss Edna Haymaker. Coffee was poured by Mrs. Virgil L. Highland.

Upon the arrival of the guests a delicious punch was served in the reception hall by Miss by Mrs. Edward Wehner assisted by Miss Christine Haynes and Miss Virginia Gaylord.

The aides through the rooms were Mrs. William Gaylord, Mrs. Benjamin Robinson and Mrs. Lloyd Souders. All during the hours of the reception a delightful program of music was played by the Cadenza orchestra. Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather over 100 guests attended.

Aid Society Entertained.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Adamston Methodist Episcopal church was delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs. George R. Criss Wednesday afternoon. After the devotional exercises the business of the society was taken up, after which the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Mrs. Wines, served a delicious dunchion. The member present were Mrs. Arthur Kidd, Mrs. Anna Baxter, Mrs. W. V. Hutchinson, Mrs. Charles Barth, Mrs. Charles M. Frankie, Mrs. G. M. Smith, Mrs. W. E. Jenkins, Mrs. F. A. McFarlin, Mrs. Albert Powell, Mrs. Harold Gabriel and Mrs. P. J. Zephus. The visitors were Mrs. Fuller, Mrs. Wines, Miss Pearl Kirkpatrick, Valerie Powell, Mildred Kidd, Birdie Smith, Thelma and Blanche Criss, George Smith, Fredrick (Baxter), William Hutchinson, William McFarlin and Charles Jenkins.

Entertains Friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Brinkley, of Ocello street, Broad Oaks, entertained a number of young folks at their home Wednesday evening. Various games were played until a late hour then the hostess served dainty refreshments. A very enjoyable time was spent by everyone.

Those present were Misses Rose Cummings, Myrtle Oliver, Flossie and Lola Swiger, Marlan and Belva Brinkley, Ellen Dodd, Grace Merrill, One Pitman, Ethel Taylor, Lowrens Sayre and Messrs. L. J. Rice, Arnett Ritter, Clace and William DeForest, Ernest Altzer, Merle Haney, Case Garrett, W. M. Rodabaugh and H. S. Hammersleigh.

Mrs. Long to Entertain.

The officers and teachers of the Central Christian church Sunday school will be entertained by the Rev. and Mrs. W. M. Long in their home at 114 Chestnut street tomorrow evening. A large attendance at the Sunday school will be the subject for discussion and the ways and means for obtaining more scholars.

DAINTY SUMMER WAISTS
A satisfying collection of desirable styles.
Attractively Priced.

The waist is one of the most important articles of a woman's wardrobe. There are times when a stylish, up-to-date, hand-some waist is the most convenient article imaginable. A stylish waist has helped many a woman out when unexpected callers came in or when she was in a hurry, and hadn't time to change to an elaborate costume, and on such occasions she mentally thanked her stars that the waist was at hand.

The new waists show originality in treatment, variety of styles, beauty of material, and a great variety of plans and novelty effects.

We are sure to have just the waist you want. Come in and let us show you. The prices are lower than you expect.

The Woman's Store

All members of the church are cordially invited to attend.

Kyle-Bland.

The marriage of Miss Anna M. Kyle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jasper S. Kyle, to Mr. Claude Bland, of this city, was quietly solemnized in the home of the bride's parents last evening, the Rev. William C. Taylor, pastor of the First Baptist church, officiating at the ceremony. Later refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Bland left on an evening train for a wedding trip in the East, and on their return will
